1. At the Executive Committee Meeting this morning Mr. McCone directed that the briefing schedule for Admiral Raborn which Mr. Kirkpatrick published on Friday, 16 April, be scratched. A new schedule will be published which will provide, insofar as DD/S is concerned, for about a two-hour briefing by the DD/S and ADD/S. More detailed briefings by Office Heads will be scheduled later.

2. I talked to [REDACTED] about expanding the guest list for the dinner party in honor of Mr. McCone and General Carter to include all Office Heads. This was done without exceeding sixty guests. Ray Cline called and wanted to add half a dozen additional people, but Walt agreed that we could not do this.

3. I attended a luncheon at the Brookings Institution in preparation for the Conference for Federal Executives on Business Operations which I shall attend in New York City and Pittsburgh from 10 to 21 May.

4. Dick Helms told me this morning that he has not sorted out all the changes that need to be made in DD/P and that he would prefer not to make any announcements until he has done so. In this connection, he expressed a desire to talk to me about these selections. I told him that I would be available at any time.
